

DESPERATE CRIES OF HUMANITY

April/May 2001

RAMIFICATIONS OF THOUGHT

Ramifications of thought
caught in time
willing each one into submission.

Vision oft times blurred
by absurd wanderings of conjecture –
Stretcher of truth
creating happenstance.

Restrictions, coupled with predilections
of ego -
shows thoughts in judgement
to augment the status quo.

Where do we go from here –
Submissive, and lost in time?
How can we define truth
within the status quo -
if, within it, the only way to go –
is submissively?

Or, do we need to move outside
to grow?

What nonsense we often speak.
Utterances of ill chosen words –
cringing, as they are heard.
Ill fitting, as sizes too big or small –
Tall tales assail the senses.

Defences raised, when questioned.
Badly behaved retorts
attempts to resort to justification
to save the situation – and face.

How does such nonsense place us in the light of day –
when it is seen – we have led ourself astray?
